

Moore fires 63, nabs CGA crown

LITTLETON — Carrol Moore of Sunset Golf Course shot a final round net 63 to win the Colorado Golf Association's Net Stroke Play Championship at South Suburban Golf Course Thursday.

Moore's three-day total of thirty-two under par 184 gave him an eight-shot win over Theodore Moore of Denver City Park Golf Course.

Brad Neher of South Suburban Golf Course made history by becoming the first one-handicapper to finish in the top-twenty in the CGA Net Championship.

CGA Stroke Play

AT SOUTH SUBURBAN GOLF COURSE
Championship Flight

Carrol Moore	60-61-63—184
Theodore Moore	64-61-67—192
Steve Liggett	66-65-64—195
John Boyles	65-69-65—199
Charles Pittock	73-60-67—200
Greg Blaydes	65-69-67—201
Pat Wallace	66-65-70—201
Larry Hill Sr.	69-65-67—201
Robert Sipes	73-63-66—202
Douglas Tashiro	64-66-73—203
Brad Neher	67-72-65—204
Steven Chase	68-66-71—205
Fred Maten	70-61-74—205

GOLF

CGA Net Stroke Play

LITTLETON — Results of yesterday's final round of the Colorado Golf Association's Net Stroke Play Championship at South Suburban Golf Course:

CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT — Carrol Moore 60-61-63—184; Theodore Moore 64-61-67—192; Steve Liggett 66-65-64—195; John Boyles 65-69-65—199; Charles Pittock 73-60-67—200; Greg Blaydes 65-69-67—201; Pat Wallace 66-65-70—201; Larry Hill Sr. 69-65-67—201; Robert Sipes 73-63-66—202; Douglas Tashiro 64-66-73—203; Brad Neher 67-72-65—204; Steven Chase 68-66-71—205; Fred Maten 70-61-74—205.

FIRST FLIGHT — Dale Tollefson 68; David Garcia 68. SECOND FLIGHT — Roger Ford 68. THIRD FLIGHT — Ken Westberg 68.