

Campiglia Takes CGA Western Chapter Championship Title

Home course knowledge proved advantageous for Bob Campiglia of Glenwood Springs at the Colorado Golf Association Western Chapter Championship at Glenwood Springs Golf Club July 1-2. Campiglia, who spends much of his golfing time at the Glenwood Springs course, birdied the first hole of a sudden death playoff to defeat Morgan Murphy of Salida. Both golfers finished the 36-hole tournament tied at 141. Campiglia shot 71-70 and Murphy shot 69-92.

First-round leader Ray Swigart, who opened with a 69, finished fifth after a final-round 76. Aspen ski great Andy Mill finished 11th with a 150 total.

Rifle's Rick Petersen won the first flight gross title with rounds of 74 and 80 to finish with a 154 total. Martin Coleman of Grand Junction won the net division with rounds of 67-70 for a 137 total.

R.W. Nix of Glenwood Springs won the second flight with a 156 total. John Tesmer of Glenwood Springs won that flight's net division with rounds of 65 and 67.

Glenwood's Jim Roy shot rounds of 80 and 84 to capture third flight honors while Harvey Goldberg shot rounds of 66 and 73 to win the net division.

Jack Smith of Rifle won the fourth flight with a two-day total of 173. Klaus Schatleitner of Glenwood Springs had a total 141 to win that flight's net division.
