

Melvin, Gunderson Win Senior Four-Ball Championship

Chuck Melvin of Boulder and Roger Gunderson of Aurora shot a three-under-par 69 to win the Colorado Golf Association Senior Four-Ball Championship by three strokes. This is the first win on the senior circuit for Melvin and the second for Gunderson, who won the CGA Senior Stroke Play Championship last year.

Bert Welz and Mike Guetz, both from Columbine Country Club, also shot a 69 at Battlement Mesa Golf Club and finished alone in second place with a total 205 for the three days.

The team of Warren Simmons of Castle Rock and Les Fowler of Boulder had the hot hand and carded the low round for the day with a 68 due largely to Simmons' hole-in-one on the third hole. Simmons and Fowler finished eight back of the leaders with a 210 and finished in third place one ahead of Bill Schuler of Los Verdes Country Club and Les Williams from Fox Hill Country Club.
